

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
SAN ANTONIO

DIVING FIRST AID

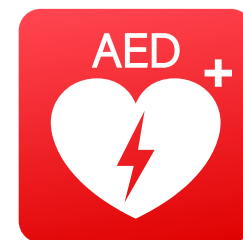

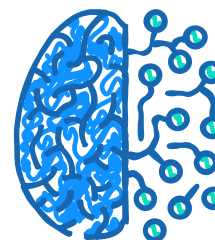

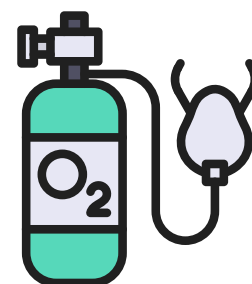

AVAILABLE FOR:

Faculty
Students
Staff

FOR PROFESSIONAL DIVERS

TRAINING INCLUDES:

- ✓ CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation)
Adults, children, and infants
- ✓ AED (automatic external defibrillator)
- ✓ First Aid & Secondary assessment
- ✓ Severe Allergic reaction and/or opioid overdose
- ✓ Oxygen administration for diving injuries
- ✓ Neurological assessment
- ✓ First aid for hazardous marine life injuries

DATES:

2025

Feb 1 & 2

March 10 & 11

May 5 & 6

December 8 & 9

2026

January 12 & 13

In-person training 12-16 hours

9 am - 6 pm

REGISTER AT

MORE INFORMATION

- This course will result in a DAN DFA Pro certification valid for 2 years
- Limited to 12 students per class
- Meet current guidelines by
 - The International Advisory Committee on Resuscitation
 - American Heart Association
 - U.S. Occupational Safety and Health Administration
 - U.S. Coast Guard*
 - To be part of A&M-SA dive operations
- All material will be provided
- Cost $10.00
- Online training must be completed prior to the in-person training

INSTRUCTOR:

Fernando Calderón Gutiérrez

Fernando.CalderonGutierrez@tamusa.edu

A&M-SA Dive Safety
Board

Divers Alert
Network

*Notify the instructor ahead of time if you are taking the course to satisfy USGC requirements